

NEWS SERVICE

No. 57

July 11, 1918.

FISHERIES

M. B. Dahl, Inc., with headquarters at Wrangell, will engage in the mild cure industry. (Cordova Times)

The Sitka Packing Co., W.P. Mills, Manager, has acquired and is operating the plant started by J.H. Long, at Sitka, last year. (Pacific Fisherman).

The plant of the Alaska Sea Food Company, has been taken over by a new company which will operate a one-line salmon cannery. The officers are J.D. Reagh, E.A. Graham, and W.M. Dickey. (Cordova Times).

NEW SALT INDUSTRIES

Ohm Fishing & Packing Company, Cordova. (Cordova Times)

Capt. C.S. Barrington, Wrangell.
Sherman Hayes, Latcuhe.
W.J. Riegel, Uyak, Kodiak Island.
Holdren & Klenner, Anchorage.
(Pacific Fisherman)

MERCANTILE

The Love-Whitely Company of Valdez, has purchased the stock of the Frye-Bruhn Co., which is retiring from business at Valdez. (Valdez Miner)

W.M. Foster, Jr. has purchased the Cigar Store at Juneau belonging to Capt. Harrigan. (Juneau Dispatch)

Mrs. Greenbaum, formerly with the Parisian Cloak & Suit Co., Ketchikan, is preparing to open business for herself under the name of Greenbaum's Ready-to-Wear Shop. (Ketchikan Progressive Miner)

Albert Reinert, formerly in business at Skagway, is opening a store at Ketchikan. He will carry a complete stock of dry goods, notions, ladies' and mens' furnishings, millinery, and shoes. (Ketchikan Progressive Miner)

Organization is being perfected at Juneau for the operation of a co-operative trading store. The directors are Messrs. Valentine, Polly, Lefevre, Kennedy and Barnett. (Juneau Dispatch)

INDUSTRIAL

The Alaska Beverage Co. has secured the plant of the Zynda brewery and will manufacture the "Valdez" brand of sodas and mineral waters. (Juneau Dispatch)

Cordova Mill & Lumber Co., has ordered machinery for a new box factory. (Anchorage Times)

United States Government is installing a plant on Pribilof Islands to extract oil from the carcass of seals. (Pacific Fishermen)

MINING

A new discovery of gold is reported on Jenny Creek on the left limit of Hannond river. (Anchorage Times)

The output of gold from the Tolovana this year is estimated at $900,000. (Fairbanks News-Miner)

TRANSPORTATION

The Northern Commercial Co. has discontinued its stage service between Chitina and Fairbanks due to failure to secure mail contract. (Ketchikan Progressive Miner)